September 2005

Seminars for Job Seekers & Career Planners

This training is offered in Suite 20, Workforce Training, Clark College at Town Plaza

Seminar schedule may vary from week to week. Check the calendar carefully!!

No pre-registration or fee. First come, first serve!

EDUCATION GOALS

GED Appraisal Testing (Intake) (Every Thursday afternoon)

Take this first step toward completing your GED. Reading, writing and math skills are covered. This is the same skills appraisal, the CASAS test, as offered in the Clark College ABE Department at Town Plaza.
Please bring two pencils.

COMPUTER LAB & TRAINING

Open Lab for Job Seekers & Career Planners (Every Thursday morning)

Increase your typing speed and accuracy. Research labor market demand and careers using Choices, WOIS or Workforce Explorer. Use the Internet for job search. Change or improve your resume using Microsoft Word. Staff available to assist.

Key Train Lab (Every Monday morning, except 9/5)

New software to increase your WorkKeys skills and help you find jobs that match your current skills. Staff available to assist.

Computer Essentials (Every Wednesday morning, except 9/14)

Everything from the basics of mouse skills to more advanced windows and file management. Tons of information. Something new for everyone from the beginner to the more advanced computer user. Get your questions answered and improve your skills.

Word and Excel (Every Friday morning, afternoon on 9/2)

Learn more about these two widely used Microsoft programs. Critical knowledge for many jobs.

A document certifying completion of the above training seminars will be awarded to each participant at the end of each session.

See the opposite side of this paper for a calendar of this month's seminar schedule.

CJST Information Meeting (1 hour, every Tuesday at 11:30 a.m.)

Would specialized training, certifications or licensing help you find employment? Come learn about Customized Job Skills Training (CJST) programs available to WorkFirst job seekers. Hear about successful graduates and fill out your application.
